Educating activity

From 2002 to the present at the University of Debrecen Faculty of Law I have had lectures and have kept seminars on main subject labour and social law for students of law for both regular and correspondent. I also educated the compulsory subject human resource management. I have further noted and educated the following main subjects: social and cultural management, human sources management for administration students, European social law. Within post-gradual education I teach the subject social security and within human resource management adviser education I also teach the subject human sources management. I regularly examine students and consult their thesis and year thesis. I make tutorial activity in DETEP Programme – which is a tutor programme for especially talented students – and prepare students for competition on pleadings in labour law. I usually fulfil the tasks of organizing education and consulting TDK (scientific student circle) and OTDK (national scientific student circle) theses.

At the University of Debrecen Faculty of Health I have noted and educated two subjects: legal knowledge in social work and legal knowledge in health science education.

Scientific/Research activity

From 2000-2002 I was a demonstrator at the Department of Agricultural Law, Environmental Law and Labour Law and received in 2001-2002 a Scholarship of Republic. In 2000 I presented two TDK theses on financing the system of social security in Hungary and on the taxing system of the agriculturists. In the next year (2001) I presented a new TDK thesis about the sustainability of the Hungarian social security system and a OTDK thesis about financing the social security systems. In 2006 I made an essay to the tender entitled „The social and legal environment and situation of the education of the adult Romany population”. I was the consultant of the 2nd place awarded thesis in the Labour and Social Law Section of OTDK, and then in 2009 I also consulted the second place awarded thesis in the Labour Law Section of the OTDK. In 2011 I was the consultant of two studies, which received first place award and a special award in Social and Legal Section of OTDK. I presented Commentary to the judicial law enforcement on behalf of the Wolters Kluwer Complex Kft. In 2010 on behalf of the Employment Office I completed a study entitled „The changes and effects on the figures of labour market of active and passive means of employment politics”. On behalf of the Opten Informatics Kft. I made commentary on act XXII of 1992 on the Labour Code in 2011. and next year a commentary on act I of 2012 on the Labour Code. I published a monograph on the legal guarantees of the sustainability of pension benefits (HVG Journal and Book Publisher, Budapest). Now I take part in of the K117009 „The requirement of equal opportunity employment in he framework of HR tendencies reflecting changing expectations in labourlabour law” research project, National Research, Development and Innovation Office, contract registration number K117009.
