

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Erzsébet Dani

Education, qualification, degrees

2004-2008 enrolled in ELTE-BTK's Doctoral Program for Literature and Library Science – summa cum laude PhD degree (2008)

2000-2002 ELTE-BTK, postgraduate degree in management, library science – graduated with distinction

1996-2000 Eszterházy Károly College, Eger, library science and informatics major

1991-1994 Health Sciences Technical School, majoring in microbiology

Employment

2010 - Assistant professor, Department of Library Science and Informatics, University of Debrecen's Faculty of Informatics and Computer Science

2010 - 2011 Associate professor, Eötvös József College, Baja; head of Library Informatics
Faculty

2009 - 2010 Eszterházy Károly College, Eger, commissioned lecturer

2008 - 2010 Library of Arany János Cultural Centre, Nagykőrös, reference subject specialist; also in charge of library home page, and data-base development

2007 - Secretary of "Szabó Károly Olvasó Társaság" and "Arany-Híd Baráti Kör"

2004-2007 ELTE-BTK, library science major, commissioned lecturer

2001- 2007 Szabó Károly Municipal Library, Nagykőrös: deputy manager, reference librarian, developer of corporational documents data-base

- 1994-2001 Bács-Kiskun County Hospital and Outpatient Clinic, Kecskemét, microbiological assistant, health science reference specialist
- 1990-1994 Semmelweis University of Medicine III, Clinic for Internal Diseases: microbiological assistant, reference librarian, and developer of medical database
- 1988-1990 Matrix factory, Székelyudvarhely, specialized library of electrotyping laboratory: reference librarian and holdings (book-stock) manager
- 1987-1988 General School nr.2., Székelyudvarhely, teacher of English

Teaching experience

Teaching faculty

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 2010- | University of Debrecen, Faculty of Informatics, university-level assistant professor |
| 2010-2011 | Eötvös József College, Baja, associate college professor, chair |
| 2008- 2010 | Eszterházy Károly College, Faculty of Teacher Training and Technology, external lecturer |
| 2004-2007 | Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities, instructor |
| 1987-1988 | Benedek Elek School, Székelyudvarhely, teacher of English |

Courses taught (so far all in Hungarian)

Writing-, book and library history
 The library aspects of cultural history
 Databases in reference work
 The tools of general reference work
 Specialist reference service
 Information management and services in EU
 History of the European Union, its member states and institutional system Multiculturalism
 Reading research
 Science of reading
 Research methodology
 Professional English for library science and informatics

Courses taught (in English)

History of the European Union, its member states and institutional system (in English)

Areas of interest in the field of library informatics

Data-base management, specialist data-base reference work
Library digitalization, open access repositories
Reading and learning research in digital environment, digital literacy

Participation in EU projects

- TÁMOP-4.1.2.-08/1/2009-005 EU project – development of e-curriculum: “Európai uniós információforrások szolgáltatása”
- TÁMOP-4.2.2.C-11/1/KONV-2012-001 EU project – “Future Internet”
- NEW Széchenyi Plan 2014 – Representation of Knowledge and Search Engines in the Internet/The Semantic Web in a Nutshell

Language

Native language: Hungarian

Foreign language certifications

Romanian – advanced state accredited language examination

English – advanced state accredited language examination

Also studied: German, Russian and Latin