 - b) be responsible for the preparation of the necessary measures and proposals in the areas specified in point a), and in this context, exercise the right of approval of decisions and measures of the senate and the rector which have economic consequences for the management, organisation and operation of the institution; approval shall be a condition for the validity and entry into force of such decisions,
 - c) ensure, using the resources available to the institution of higher education, that the management of the institution of higher education is sufficient for the performance of its basic tasks,
 - d) exercise the rights of ownership in the companies and business organisations in which the institution participates,
 - e) in the performance of the tasks falling within his/her competence, exercise the right of employer over the employees of the institution of higher education on the basis of the rules governing the institution's employment regulations, and ensure that financial and professional competence in accordance with the law is

- guaranteed,
 - f)* ensure the performance of the duties of chief financial officer, delegate the duties of chief financial officer and revoke the mandate of the same,
 - g)* in the performance of his/her duties, he/she shall fulfil his/her obligation to cooperate with and inform the rector.
- 6.2.2 The post of chancellor shall be open to and appointment as a chancellor may be maintained by persons who
- a)* have at least five years' leadership experience in a higher education institution and
 - b)* hold a university or college degree in the field of economics.
- 6.2.3 The chancellor shall be an employee of the institution, with the board of trustees exercising the employer's rights.
- 6.2.4 The chancellor may delegate the powers provided for in points 6.2.1, paragraphs b), d) and e) to an employee of the institution on a case-by-case basis or for a specific range of cases. When delegating powers, the chancellor shall ensure that the senior manager or leader of the higher education institution exercises the powers necessary for the performance of his/her leadership duties. The holder of the delegated powers may not further sub-delegate such powers.
- 6.2.5 In the event of the chancellor's incapacity or inability to act, or in the event of a temporary vacancy in the office of chancellor, the leader designated in the rules of organisation and operation shall be entitled to act as a substitute for the chancellor.
- 6.2.6 Terms of appointment of the chancellor:
The operation of the higher education institution shall be managed by the chancellor, who is appointed or dismissed by the chairperson of the Board of Trustees on the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation. The term of office is indefinite.

6.3 The senate

- 6.3.1 The governing body of the higher education institution is the senate. The president of the senate is the rector.
- 6.3.2 The senate shall have the powers of the higher education institution as laid down in the Fundamental Law (Constitution) of Hungary.
- 6.3.3 The Senate shall
- a)* determine the educational and research tasks of the higher education institution and monitor their implementation;
